

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

A YOUNG GIRL AT NACO HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

A New Business Enterprise—interesting items from the thriving town on the border.

Naco, July 8.—Tom Holland, the well known ranger, assisted by Tom Burt on Monday arrested a man who is known as Ricardo Manquero, but who has gone under several aliases. The man arrested is wanted for murder committed several years ago near Austin, Texas. He escaped when arrested at Abilene, in the same state. His description answered that given by J. M. Davis, sheriff at Austin. The captured man is an intelligent, good looking half breed Mexican, speaks well, of excellent address, is an expert gambler, and has the reputation of being a determined character. He has several gun shot wounds on him, his right arm having been pierced by a bullet. The prisoner has been taken to Tombstone for safety, where he will be identified and taken to Texas.

The death of Mrs. W. A. White, wife of the well known citizen and property owner of Naco, which occurred last Friday, is the subject of much sympathetic comment in this town, where the deceased lady was so well liked. The people of Naco express their sincere condolence with Mr. White in his great bereavement.

The "Emporium," the fine new store in the recently completed White Block, which is owned by Curry & Co., including such well known citizens as Avery and Joe Curry, is now among the attractions of Naco, and can be safely counted as one of the finest and most costly stocked establishments in Arizona. This emporium, the attraction of which is the unrivalled display of ladies' and gentlemen's furnishing goods, contains within its walls an assortment of goods, which are not pretended to be cheap, but are decidedly asserted to be the best and most thoroughly perfect in texture and fashion ever presented to the public in this region. It is an evidence of the growing importance and wealth of Naco.

Josephine, a Mexican member of the demi monde, made a determined attempt to commit suicide last Sunday. The girl swallowed enough corrosive sublimate to kill any individual, but was discovered in time and promptly pumped out. Josephine was only a short time ago well known as a respectable girl. She has made an attempt to commit suicide prior to this.

The dining room of the Naco hotel has been let to a well known firm of Japanese restaurant keepers and cooks. This favorite resort is being run in a style that equals any such establishment in this district and has a large patronage.

The death of the little son of Mr. Ed Hanlon last week was a most regrettable event, and the parents have the deep sympathy of our people.

Mrs. Pike is quite sick at her home, near Naco and has been confined to the house the last two weeks.

Sam London, of a San Francisco house, was a visitor here the last two days, looking up a likely situation for a business enterprise in the hardware line.

J. Munoz, a capable and energetic officer, is now chief of police on the Mexican side and law and order are well enforced.

P. N. Manwell, of Los Angeles, was here during the holidays. He was purchasing supplies for a trip into Sonora, where he goes to acquire health and mining property.

The four daughters and two sons of Mrs. L. L. Fike returned from Los Angeles, where they have been at school.

Ed. L. Pomeroy, of Mesa, was in the town yesterday. Mr. Pomeroy is an insurance agent.

Dominick Maffeo, well known in Bisbee, and a number of other boiler makers, came through Naco, Monday, on their way to Cananea, where they will resume work for the Cananea Copper Company. All difficulties which existed between the company and the boiler makers have been adjusted.

The large new cold storage warehouse has been completed and is receiving extensive consignments of beer and other luxuries. The proprietor enjoys already a large and growing business.

B. F. Graham left today for a trip to the coast, where his wife and children are located, enjoying the Pacific Ocean breeze.

A detachment from Huachuca post came in today to secure a deserter, who was in the local jail waiting to move to Fort Grant, where his company is stationed.

The Tucson Citizen was misinformed when it stated that Naco has no baseball ground. Naco has the best prepared and most perfect baseball ground in the territory. The ground is enclosed and a large area sheltered from the sun, thus affording every comfort to spectators.

The bull fight Sunday was attended by a fair audience. The performance was pronounced well worth seeing. The excursion to the Cananea took a number of our people down to see them. W. A. Updyke, who played the most wonderful mining camp in the west.

Uncle George Humphrey, who struck

Tucson forty-four years ago, June, 1858, and has been in the west ever since, left for Tombstone Tuesday, where he goes for medical treatment. The old gentleman is a great sufferer from rheumatism. He is a well known stage driver of the old days, and has seen some of the most exciting incidents of this road.

WOMAN AND FASHION

Red and White Combination.
The sketch is a red foulard patterned with white, with the skirt plaited back and front. Front plait reaches half the length of the skirt; those at back are free six inches below the waist. The bolero and sleeves are trimmed with white cloth collar and cuffs, bordered with bands of red cloth. The belt is of red cloth, the collar band white cloth, the blouse and full undersleeves being of white lace.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ornaments For the Low Collure.

Very large and beautifully jeweled pins and combs are used to give the twists of the low collures a natural appearance of passing through them, and an empire wreath of flowers or of jewels made up to imitate flowers is used to surround the knot of hair on the neck, sometimes finished off with loops of velvet or a few drooping flowers. There is likely to be a great display of tiaras, so many having been reset and done up in view of the coronation festivities. These ornaments are far more graceful and less massive looking than formerly, many of them taking the form of flowers and delicate wreaths of foliage. Those who do not own tiaras adopt wreaths and sprays of flowers, diamonds, which conduce to a lighter style of hairdressing. Stiff bows of pearls or diamonds are also being introduced again, the hair being built up into the quaint style of the restoration period.

Dainty Bits of Lace.

No woman can have too many of the dainty little lace additions to dress. A square of embroidered net edged with tulle lace can be formed into a jabot and give a dainty finish to a short open coat. A rather novel fichu is of ecru net, embroidered, and is draped and edged with a couple of frills of lace with cascade down the front. Another bit of finery for the neck is made of embroidered lace fastened at the side with a couple of choix. Pretty little stole ties are made of embroidered lawn or lace.
